

Complete Your Advance Directive

Free opportunities to review and sign your healthcare power of attorney and living will

Most of us hope we will always be independent, healthy and in control of our own lives. But a sudden accident or serious illness can take away that freedom. When that happens, our loved ones are asked to make medical choices for us. Take control of your future care with an advance directive.

Think About It. Talk About It. Write It Down.

- Review and complete your North Carolina healthcare power of attorney and living will
- Have your advance directive forms notarized free of charge
- Learn what to do with your completed advance directive
